RECORD HUNG UP

Algonquins in Game with Presto Five Roll 1,175, Best Mark Ever Made-Scores in Last Night's Games.

A new world's record for a five-man eam of 1,175 was put up fast night on chlusings alleys by the Algonquin team in a match game with the Presto Club five. The former mark was 1,152, held jointly by the Sylvans of Brooklyn and the Empires of Chicago. It will no doubt be the record for some time to record-breaking contest was brought about by the Presto five, who were anxious to meet the crack Algonquins. The former team had just completed their last game in the Columbia League tournament, with the fine score of 1,085, which incidentally is a record for that tournament.

The Algonquins were the first to take the alleys, and from the first ball rolled R was seen that the scores would be far above the average, strike after strike was made and at the end of the fifth frame it was evident that the record was in danger. When Maurie Wyman rolled the last ball down the lley in the thirteenth frame the blackhiey in the thirteenth frame the black-board showed the wonderful score of 1.175, which was a world's record. Algonquin--Smith, 245; Diederick, 269; Watt. 182; Moynahan 254; Wyman, 225; total, 1.175. Presto--Wallace, 168; St. John, 234; Hatch, 156; Howell, 184; G. Schlusing, 221; total, 853.
